
Farmer Fatally Hurt In Highway Accident

CORSICANA, Texas, Dec. 8.—A. C. Wooten, 41, Emhouse farmer, died in an Ennis hospital Saturday afternoon of head injuries sustained in an automobile accident near Rice late Friday. Wooten's automobile turned over after it struck a car occupied by Charles F. W. Young of Teague, officers reported.

Wooten's death was the seventh of the year from auto accidents in Navarro County.

Surviving are his wife and three children.